

ANTI-SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING POLICY STATEMENT

Introduction

This policy has been prepared by the Fastflow Group for the whole organisation (hereafter termed 'the Company' for the purposes of this statement) and its subsidiaries, which currently comprise companies trading as DW Support Services, Fastflow Energy Services, Fastflow Pipeline Services and Partner Construction. It is approved by the Group's Board and the boards of the subsidiaries. It is reviewed at least annually, for publication on the Group's website (which also incorporates subsidiaries' websites), within 6 months of the organisation's financial year end in March.

Modern slavery is a crime resulting in an abhorrent abuse of the human rights of vulnerable workers. It can take various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced or compulsory labour and human trafficking. The Company has a zero tolerance approach to modern slavery and is committed to acting ethically and with integrity and transparency in all of its business dealings and relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure that modern slavery and human trafficking are not taking place anywhere within either the business or in any of its supply chains, consistent with its obligations under the Modern Slavery (MSA) Act 2015.

The Company accepts that it has a responsibility to ensure that workers are not being exploited, that they are safe and that relevant employment, health and safety and human rights laws and standards are being adhered to, including freedom of movement and communications.

This policy applies to all individuals working for the Company or on the Company's behalf in any capacity, including employees, directors, officers, agency workers, volunteers, agents, contractors, consultants and business partners.

We have conducted reviews at Board level and concluded that within the business there are no instances that constitute a breach of the MSA act. We have evaluated our supply chain and we believe that no suppliers are unaware of the MSA act or are likely to conduct their businesses in a manner that will lead to breaches of the act.

Responsibility for the policy

The board of directors has overall responsibility for ensuring that this policy complies with the Company's legal and ethical obligations.

Line managers are responsible for ensuring that those reporting to them understand and comply with this policy.

Compliance

The prevention, detection and reporting of modern slavery in any part of the Company's business or supply chains, whether in the UK or abroad, is the responsibility of all those working for the Company or under the Company's control. You are required to avoid any activity that

Page	1 of 2	Approved by:	Shaun Hastings
Issue No.	004	Author:	Keith Gold
Date Issued	April 2019	Owner:	Group HR

might lead to a breach of this policy.

If you believe or suspect a breach of or conflict with this policy has occurred or may occur, you must notify your line manager or report it in accordance with the Company's Disclosures in the Public Interest Policy. You are encouraged to raise concerns about any issue or suspicion of modern slavery in any part of the Company's business or supply chains as soon as possible. If you are unsure about whether a particular act, the treatment of workers or their working conditions within any of the Company's supply chains constitutes any of the various forms of modern slavery, please raise it with your line manager. You can also contact the government's Modern Slavery Helpline on 0800 0121 700 for further information and guidance on modern slavery.

The Company aims to encourage openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken. The Company is committed to ensuring no one suffers any detrimental treatment or victimisation as a result of reporting in good faith their suspicion that modern slavery is or may be taking place in any part of its business or in any of its supply chains.

Training and communication

Training on this policy, and on the risk that the business faces from modern slavery in its supply chains, will be provided to staff as necessary, so that they know how to identify exploitation and modern slavery and how to report suspected cases.

The Company's zero tolerance approach to modern slavery will be communicated to all suppliers, contractors and other business partners when entering into new or renewed contracts with them.

Breach of the policy

Any employee who breaches this policy will face disciplinary action, up to and including summary dismissal for gross misconduct.

The Company may terminate its commercial relationship with suppliers, contractors and other business partners if they breach this policy and/or are found to have been involved in modern slavery.

Neil Armstrong
Fastflow Group CEO

Page	2 of 2	Approved by:	Shaun Hastings
Issue No.	004	Author:	Keith Gold
Date Issued	April 2019	Owner:	Group HR